

The Killing Fields (no post today) - March 28, 2023

Updated: Mar 30, 2023

[Today there is no post, effectively. The main part of today's program is a visit to one of the killing fields and the associated genocide museum here at S-21 in Phnom Penh. This killing field is one of 195 in Cambodia. If you wish to know more, it is recommended to see the movies The Killing Fields and First They Killed My Father. The visit was tremendously heart rending but no words can ever do justice to the inhuman injustices done here.]
